

WALK No 5 – Across horse paddocks and arable land to Eastcourt, a quiet lane to Flisteridge Wood, a byway via a ford to Cloatley Road and return to church. 5½ mls.

1	From the G at the north of WALK No 1 (labelled 'WALK No 5'), aim 20 yds right of the large house (Rookery Farm House) ahead across the sheep field to a S.		[Alternative shortened route (3¾ mls). Pass through the wooden G, then ahead 50 yds to meet the hedge, turn right to follow it on your left to a wooden B.
2	Through a G past the chicken pen to a further G and then ahead to a S (caution barbed wire).		Cross the B and proceed ahead following the hedge and ditch on your left to a S in the far left corner of the pasture where it narrows to a point.
3	Proceed across the horse paddock, divided by electric fencing, to a wooden B.		Ahead with the ditch on your left to a long wooden B. Go ahead, follow the brook on your left to a G with a S and a further S.
4	Cross the arable field, heading slightly right of the line of the B you have just crossed, to a wooden B and then a S.		Ahead to the G and S at the far end of the pasture. After 200 yds a gap in the left hand hedge takes you over a B from where you can take the alternative route back to the church described in Walk No 4.
5	Turn sharp right to a large solitary oak, then follow the electric fence across the large pasture to a four-way junction of such fences.		Or otherwise do not cross the B but continue ahead to a G at the end of this field then diagonally left across the next pasture, sometimes with sheep in it, to the G where you started this walk].
6	Cross this and keep to the right of the far electric fence, aiming at a water trough. Cross the S, pass an old stone S, and a further S to a paddock.	10	Continue from Braydon Brook Farm uphill to Flisteridge Wood, which the lane you are on passes through.
7	Follow the right side hedge towards the large houses. Cross the S in the far right corner of the paddock and proceed along the narrow FP to emerge onto the Eastcourt-Hankerton lane.	11	As you approach the wood, there are distant views on your right to Bullock's Horn. 600 yds into the wood take the broad grey gravel track (a byway) on your right 40 yds before the entrance to Hunters Lodge.
8	Turn right to the crossroads and right again towards Minety. Ahead of you on the skyline is Flisteridge Wood.	12	Go downhill, cross the F and climb back to Cloatley Road (the Hankerton-Minety lane) and turn right.
9	Continue past Eastcourt House and the grotesque Pill Bridge to a gravel drive on your left (Braydon Brook Farm and Barn), 30 yds after which is a wooden G on your right.	13	Follow the lane to the car park for Cloatley Meadows, and then use Walk No 4 to return to the church from here.
