9pm - DJ Catherine Burke with her fabulous selection of music ...

Monday 25th May - St Aldhelm's Day Special with Tony McAleavy

We are celebrating the legacy of St Aldhelm. He was the first English writer and lived around the year 700. He transformed Malmesbury from an obscure hermitage into one of Europe's leading centres of learning.

7pm – From Malmesbury to Hersfeld: Anglo-Saxon Malmesbury and the conversion of Germany

8pm – Riddles and Music – can you answer the Riddles of Aldhelm?

9pm – Monastic Chant of the Anglo-saxons – the music of paradise

All shows are repeated from 3pm the following day, and will be on the Listen Again service a couple of days after broadcast.

Thanks and all the best,
Dan, Sidney, Tristan & Chris
